Please join BTV Fitness and Wellness Director Jennifer Neill for an informative talk on using social media to help track and manage your health. 2pm C (W)

Thursday 22nd – The Claudia Burson Jazz Trio

Claudia Burson grew up in Fayetteville. Her interest in music was sparked early and she began playing piano at age eight. In 1976, she enrolled at the Berklee School of Music in Boston, followed by a fruitful period of performance in Houston where she met and played with people like Lionel Hampton, Charlie Rouse, Arnett Cobb and Joe Henderson. A faculty member of the UA Fulbright College's School of Music, Claudia focuses on jazz studies. This evening's performance will include artists Drew Packard on bass and Steve Wilkes on drums. 6:30pm PH (W)

Friday 23rd – Musical Performance with Harold Chilton

Many of you enjoy Harold's piano playing on Fridays in the BTV Dining Room. Tonight, join him for a concert in the Performance Hall with songs you know and love. 7pm PH (W)

Saturday 24th – Pasadena Roof Orchestra

Swing is in! And the Pasadena Roof Orchestra is one of the bands responsible for the revival. With musicians who have been employed by big stars like Robbie Williams and Bryan Ferry, this dance orchestra has an authentic '20s and '30s sound, a technically brilliant delivery, and a light-hearted musical style. Depart 6:15pm WAC R $ (W)

Saturday 24th – The Music of Frank Sinatra with Sheil Sharma

Fifteen-year-old Sheil Sharma is a multi-talented junior at Fayetteville High School who's been playing the piano for 12 years and singing as long as he can remember. Upon graduation, he hopes to pursue a career in medicine while continuing his passion for music. Welcome Sheil tonight as he presents a themed show featuring the music of Frank Sinatra. 2pm PH (W)
